Excerpt from "Auguries of Innocence"

To see a World in a Grain of Sand
And a Heaven in a Wild Flower,
Hold Infinity in the palm of your hand
And Eternity in an hour.

— William Blake

As we move on from our high school experience to the real world, we must realize that these experiences we've all shared are merely grains of sand compared to the experiences we are about to encounter. It is our hope that each and every one of you are able to see the opportunities that lie ahead and that our futures hold infinite possibilities. At times, school seemed like it would never end and we thought our friendships would last forever. Now, it is obvious that our final hours are coming to an end. May your futures hold endless possibilities and much success.

Our years together have produced an eternity of memories and may you hold these grains of sand dear to your heart as you embrace your worlds to come.

Special Thanks:

We would like to thank Ms. Hurst for all the hard work she put into this book. Knowing it was her first year, we tried to make it easy on her even though at times it did not seem that way. Next, we would like to thank our photography editor, Brody Stowers, for all the hard work he put into the photographs and all the trips he made to Buell Kraft/Dairy Queen. Finally, we would like to thank the staff for all their hard work.

Fall Activities

Scoreboard Shows Mansfield 21, Massillon 20

Mansfield 21, Massillon 20, the turning point in the Tygers' season. The Tygers started off slow, but after the victory over Massillon the team was on a roll with a two game winning streak gaining victories over Mt. Vernon and Ashland. The Tygers seemed like they were finally turning things up. Senior Corey Carpenter claimed, "The team did good. We overcame many adversities."

The next game was against a very strong Marion team in which the Tygers played an impressive game but lost 26-28. With the Tygers on the rope, they played an excellent Steubenville team and won against the powerhouse football team.

"The season started out slow, but as the season progressed we improved in many areas," responded senior MVP Marshall Levins.

The season ended with a victory over Lexington which extended their record to 6-4. Coach Jefferson exclaimed, "Overall, the team was very competitive. We accomplished many goals like the victories over Massillon and Steubenville. Our defeat over Massillon was the greatest win I've ever been associated with."

'96 Season: Both Trying and Treasured

During the fall season most students' minds are focused on football and homecoming. Who will win the big game? Who will be crowned queen? But for 21 young ladies there was another thing on their minds ... VOLLEYBALL!

With the combination of J.V. and Varsity players, the volleyball season was both successful and fun. Even though the record does not show a perfect season, the skills learned, goals accomplished, and memories formed add up to a perfect season.

Varsity coach Annette Lower was quoted as saying she is going to miss everything about the past season, but is looking forward to the girls returning next year. Coach Lower hopes to gain consistency from the returning players.

Out of the 21 players only four of them were seniors. They were Heidi Sigler, Nicole Shaffer, Regina Kraft, and captain Jodi Dawson. Each senior remembered something special from her last volleyball season. Memorable moments included building dear friendships and playing quality games against Madison (A), Marion Harding (A), and long-time rival St. Petes. The Tygers defeated St. Petes during the Galion Tournament. When asked what they will miss the most, the senior players responded by saying that they will miss seeing each other on the court due to the fact that they have played together for four years.

Volleyball might not earn the recognition as do the other sports, but it is a great sport that takes skills, loyalty, and dedication. This sport is on the move to the top and is ready to receive what it deserves.

Tygers Have a Change of Luck: Best Season in Years

The Boys' Soccer team led a very successful season. Their improved record of 6-11-1, along with morals instilled by the coach, gave the team strong character. Although the newspaper predicted the Tygers to lead a more successful season, they were still winners due to their hard work and dedication.

They started their season off with a strong win over Mt. Vernon. They also ended their season with a win against Ashland which knocked the Arrows out of O.H.C. contention. Coach Brian Bowman remembered the Elida win as a very memorable part of the season along with beating St. Peter's. He felt the worst memories of the season were the two losses to Lexington. Bowman stated, "The team should improve in the following year."

Many Tyger players were recognized for their achievements during the 1995 season. Awards received were: Todd Evans and Bobby Milum, First Team All-Conference; Jessie Miller and Matt Basilone, Second Team All-Conference; John Beasley and Adam Petty, Honorable Mention All-Conference; Bobby Milum, Matt Basilone, and Jessie Miller, Honorable Mention All-District; Todd Evans, Second Team All-District and MVP; Aaron Jacobs, Coach's Award; Victor Anderson, Captain's Award; Shawn Radcliffe, Heart and Hustle Award; and Kevin Bennett, Most Improved.

Bobby Milum stated that he will miss being on the team and playing at Arlin Field. Aaron Jacobs replied, "I'll miss being with all my friends I've made on the team." Finally, Todd Evans claimed he'll miss all the goofing around on the bus and during practice.

Tygers Keep Rolling with Young Team

The Lady Tygers had yet another very successful season with a winning record of 10-7-2. The Lady Tygers had a very trying but productive year by breaking four records which were best overall record (10-7-2), least number of goals scored by one person (12, Kim McGinty), and most steals and intercepts (Ardath Nash, 680 for career).

Brandi Thoman, first year goalie, claimed, "Despite the team's success, the team needed more unity."

This year's captains were sophomore Kim McGinty, seniors Nicki Dunham, Stephani Heston, and Ardath Nash.

The Lady Tygers had eight players who received Conference Honors. Kim McGinty, Ardath Nash, and Ebony Bronson were named First Team. Amber Bronson, Nicki Dunham, and Alanna Dewiel were named Second Team. Honorable Mention went to Joanne Tiffany and Stephani Heston. The Captain's Award went to Kim McGinty, Ardath Nash, Stephani Heston, and Nicki Dunham. Kim McGinty receive Most Valuable Offensive Award and Ardath Nash was awarded the Most Valuable Defensive Award. Most Improved went to Kara Kozimore.

The Lady Tygers felt that this year was very successful and look optimistically toward next year returning all but four letter winners.

Cross Country Teams Experience a Season of Change

The Boys' Cross Country team did a lot more than what was expected of them this year. Despite the 1994 season, the boys didn't get discouraged. The boys' losing record was turned around and it was moved from last in Conference and District to third. They also placed second at the Wooster meet. In addition, the girls' team had a productive year. They placed second in Conference, sixth in District, and third in the Wooster meet.

Returning lettermen this year for the boys included Brody Stowers, Matt Carl, Mark Hutchinson, and Jeromie Barnhart. Returning lettermen for the girls included Allison Hohenberger, Anna Sminchak, Steffany Walter, and Sara Jones.

On the men's side, Brody Stowers broke the school record (16:01), placed first in Conference and Districts, seventeenth in Regionals and twenty-ninth at State performing the best for MSH in fourteen years. The team also had the Fab Five, which included Nick Dewald, Jon Medina, Bryce Harris, Jason Alexander and Tim Droughard (five returning freshmen).

On the girls' side, captains Allison Hohenberger and Sara Jones had an impressive season. Sara took third in Cat Pack and made it to Regionals with a thirty-third finish. Allison also had an awe-inspiring seventh at Cat Pack.

When asked what the most memorable part of the season was, Amy Warner (a first year letterman) said, "The OHC, not only because my time improved the most, but because the girls placed second in the meet." Brody Stowers replied saying, "It was the most memorable year because I set the school record and I turned my last place finish of last year to a first place finish of the year."

Tygers Make Memories on the Green

The Golf Team had a very interesting and productive season, with an overall record of 1-33. Although they didn't have a winning season, it was filled with many memories. One such memory was when the team witnessed a fellow golfer kill a bird with a golf ball at Westbrook! Andy Laderman said he will definitely remember the rides in the vans to the tournaments.

The Golf Team traveled to local golf courses such as Westbrook, The Woods, Colridge, and Twin Lakes. At the fall sports awards, John Brightbill received the honor as the Most Valuable Player. Most Improved went to Andy Laderman. The Captain's Award was given to Mike Sigg. The Coach's Award was received by Aaron Wiegand.

Mike Sigg thought back on the season and stated, "We had our good rounds and we had our bad rounds." Even though the Golf Team did not have a winning season, next year does look promising with seven returning lettermen.

Girls' Tennis Team Attains Personal Growth and Improvement

The 1995 Girls Tennis Team had an overall great season. Although no positive records were beaten, this was the first year they had to default third singles for the first five matches because of lack of players. However, the lack of players didn't stop them from trying. The team's overall goal was to do their best.

They played eighteen matches this year. Their wins were against St. Peters, River Valley, and Clearfork.

The team consisted of freshman Jackie Bell, Shannon Smith, Nina Yates and Sara Kohler; juniors Teresa Beer, Renee Obermeyer and Christy Groh; and senior Kelly Keller.

The captain of the team was Teresa Beer. Jackie Bell was our district qualifier and received MVP, and Shannon Smith received the Coach's Award.

The team's record was 4-14. When Coach Lorentz was asked if they made him ponder early retirement, he said, "As far as individual or personal qualities, I couldn't ask for a team with better attitudes, academic prowess, or character."

Music is the Spirit of the School

The Tyger Marching Band was composed of 220 students including the freshmen. The band, along with the Flag Corps, kept the crowd on their feet at every football game. They performed many special events such as winter and spring concerts, District and State Adjudication, solo and ensemble contests, and the International Competition in Toronto, Canada. They also marched in the Memorial Day parade, the Miss Ohio parade, and at Cedar Point.

When asked about their future, Mr. Jay Welenc said he would like the band to perform at the highest level possible while having fun at the same time. He said band requires much hard work, and they accomplished many of their goals.

The 130 member choir directed by Mr. Brian Nabors sang at the Homecoming Assembly and the J.C. Gorman Assembly. The choir also performed at their special event called The Bizarre. Mr. Nabors stated his goal as trying to get the students to sing outside of school.

Finally, the Orchestra consisted of 55 musicians directed by Mr. John Riegal. They played at the Homecoming Assembly, solo and ensemble contests, and the State Adjudication. As the Spirit of the School, these three music groups provided entertainment while working towards self improvement.

The Sweetest Days

This year's Homecoming theme, The Sweetest Days, was chosen by the class of 1997. The Homecoming assembly was held in the Pete Henry Gymnasium. Michael Sigg and Robin Melton were the Master and Mistress of ceremonies.

Shavaneka Feagin, escorted by LaCario Tufts, was crowned queen by former Homecoming queen LaTonya Cotton. Her court consisted of seniors Charlotte Evans, escorted by Joe Perry, and Heidi Sigler, escorted by Joe Fairchild. Representing the junior class was Ariaiah Wolf, escorted by Jessie Miller. Representing the sophomore class was Valeka Ford, escorted by Famico Williams. The freshman class attendant was Toy Houston, escorted by Marquis Sykes.

Our Homecoming game was against the Steubenville Stallions; the Tygers roared through to a 22-21 victory. Joe Fairchild exclaimed, "It was a great accomplishment, and I hope we keep the streak alive!" He finished by saying, "I was proud to escort the girl I love."

Gary Perry was one of the four senior football players who presented the game ball to the queen at the assembly. After the game he replied, "I was glad we won the game; it was a tremendous feeling." Despite the brisk temperature and piercing wind, the Tygers still managed to pull off a Homecoming victory.

The Homecoming dance was held in the Pete Henry Gymnasium. "The work was demanding and very stressful, but the Homecoming Committee came together and presented a good dance," replied Miss Hurst, junior class advisor.

Blast From the Past

The Blast From the Past memories will definitely last. Students dug around in their attics and rummaged to different thrift shops to find their attire. The styles ranged from the 1920's to the 1980's.

There was also a dance to go along with the Blast From the Past day sponsored by the Student Council. When asked, a few students responded about their Blast From the Past experiences. Katina Aivaliotis stated she had a good time at the dance and had fun dressing up. She found her 1960's hippie outfit in her mother's closet. Amilia Miller didn't attend the dance but was dressed as a hippie the day before the dance.

A blue leisure suit from the 1970's was the attire chosen by Todd Evans. Todd attended the dance and said he had a good time acting crazy with his friends. Kelly Kozimor was uniquely dressed as a flapper from the 1920's and also attended the dance accompanied by fellow flappers Jessa Prats, Angie Doan, Rachel Maxfield, and Kasey McCorkle. Torrie Richardson said she went with the look of the 1980's in an outfit she found in her own closet.

Students were encouraged to partake in a twist contest and a leisure suit contest was won by Nukuma Williams, Dan Yaden, Jeff Soliday, Matt Demyan, and Zach Bletz. These Blast From the Past events will surely be something the students will always remember.

Tygers Achieve Another Successful Season

Mansfield Senior High boys' basketball team had another winning season under coach Helter. They had a record of thirteen and eight. The boys finished third in the Ohio Heartland Conference. They had disappointing losses to Lexington, Ashland, and Madison. Strong wins were gained against Cleveland St. Joes, Ashland, Sandusky, Marion Harding, and Madison. Cleveland St. Joes was ranked second in division two and the Tygers were expected to lose by a large sum. In the game against Marion Harding the Tygers almost reached triple digits; they came three points away from doing it. This would have been the only time the Tygers got close to that mark this season.

At the awards banquet many Tygers received awards. The leading scorer went to George Palmer. He also received first-team Ohio Heartland Conference, All District Six, and third team Northwest District. The Defensive award went to Ed Thompson. Rod Wilson was given the Most Rebounds award. He also earned second team Ohio-Heartland Conference and All District Six.

The Mr. Hustle award went to Jake Soliday. The Most Improved Players awards went to Dubrey Black and Jason Richardson.

Many Tygers were interviewed to find out how they felt about the season. Jake Soliday said the high point of this season was beating St. Joes and the way the team played after the second grading because of the ineligibility. The thing that he regrets most about the season was the team didn't go as far as they expected in the tournaments. George Palmer said that the losses to Madison and Ashland and the ineligibility were disappointments about this season. He also stated that the game he liked best was Cleveland St. Joes. Mark Hutchinson stated, "My high point of the season was the second game against Ashland. We were not expected to do that well because of the ineligibility, but we pulled off a victory." Eddie Thompson said that his high point of the season was the way the team stepped up after the second grading period because of the ineligibility. Despite the problems encountered, the team was able to achieve a successful season.

New Coach Brings New Beginnings

The 1995-1996 Lady Tygers' Basketball team ended its season with a 7-13 record. "The morale of the team got better and better as everyone got to know one another" replied center Shayla Crawford. With a lot of hard work and effort the team beat West Holmes for the first time ever. The team was coached by first year Coach Andrea Thompson. The team captains included La'Tavia Bronson and Nicole Pigott.

This year's Most Valuable Player award went to Ebony Bronson. La'Tavia Bronson and Nicole Pigott received the Captain's award. In addition, Nicole Pigott received Most Rebounds, Most Improved, and the Coach's award.

To onlookers, participating on the basketball team seemed like play, but to the fellow teammates the story could be told differently. Many of them advise students to keep up their grades and then focus on other activities. "Go for your goals and always keep a positive mind. Also, don't laugh in practice or you'll have to run suicides" advised Ebony Bronson.

Overall, the team experienced a successful season. Along with a new coach, the team received new jerseys and warm-ups which added to the morale of the team.

Cheerleaders Display Unending Spirit

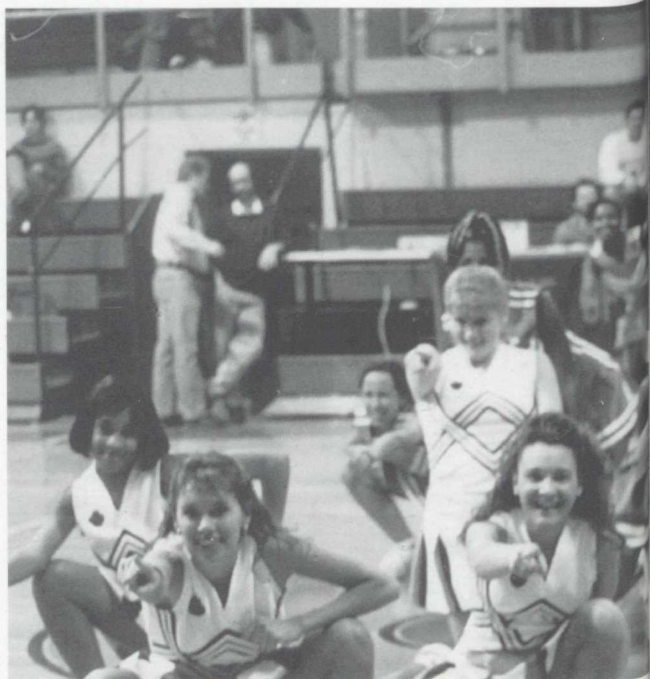

The 1995-96 Varsity cheerleading squad consisted of five girls: Tonya Tackett, Jenny Jones, Steffany Walter, Whitney Braggs, and Jenny McElvain. The seniors cheered for all four of their high school years. Tonya Tackett held the captain's position for both seasons while Steffany Walter co-captained for football season and Jenny Jones took over in basketball season. The junior varsity squad consisted of Da'ren Brooks, Andrea Sampsel, Melissa Campbell, Robyn Melton, Darshie Goodwin, and Anissa Corn. Their captain was Darshie Goodwin and Robyn Melton served as co-captain.

The cheerleading squads began their season at U.C.A. cheerleading camp at Otterbein University in Columbus, Ohio. There they learned twelve new cheers, ten new chants, and three new dances. The trip helped prepare the girls for two seasons of pumping up the crowd.

The cheerleaders stuck

through a year of freezing football fields and sweaty gyms, but they made enough good memories to compensate for it. When asked to name their most memorable moment, all of the Varsity cheerleaders named cheerleading camp. Robyn Melton felt it gave the squad a chance to get to know each other and to become closer to one another. The seniors enjoyed their time together because it was their last year. All the cheerleaders agreed that the Massillon game was their favorite game to cheer for because there was no trouble getting the crowd to cheer. The only complaint the cheerleaders had was the crowd's lack of participation in supporting the teams throughout both seasons.

The Varsity, junior varsity, and freshmen cheerleading squads should all be commended for their unending spirit and support through both football and basketball seasons. GO TYGERS!

Early Morning Practices Prove Girls' Dedication

Up before light and home after dark can only mean one thing . . . swim season has begun. The members of the girls' swim team began each morning with either a workout in the weight room or a grueling swim in the pool. The season was not as successful as the team had hoped for. Still, they did win more meets than they lost. Captain Kasey McCorkle said the 5:30 a.m. practices had to be the worst part of the whole season. McCorkle also stated that next year's goal is to get back on a winning streak like in previous years.

On the other side of the pool is diving. This year, diving was filled with some good times and some bad times. For sophomore Leah Kolb, diving was definitely filled with more good times than bad. Leah broke two diving records, had her best meet against Lima Senior, and was the only diver to make it to state.

This year at the Winter Sports Awards, many young ladies were recognized. Leah Kolb earned Most Valuable and the Diving Award. Most Improved went to Melissa Scheidt. Kasey McCorkle received the Captain's Award. Third year varsity honors were given to Jenny Exten, Allison Hohenberger, Kasey McCorkle, and Anne Marie Welsh.

Whether they were on the board or in the lanes, the members of the girls' swimming and diving team have a lot to be proud of.

“Just like everything else, it takes hard work and dedication.”

Boys' Swimming Requires Hard Work and Dedication

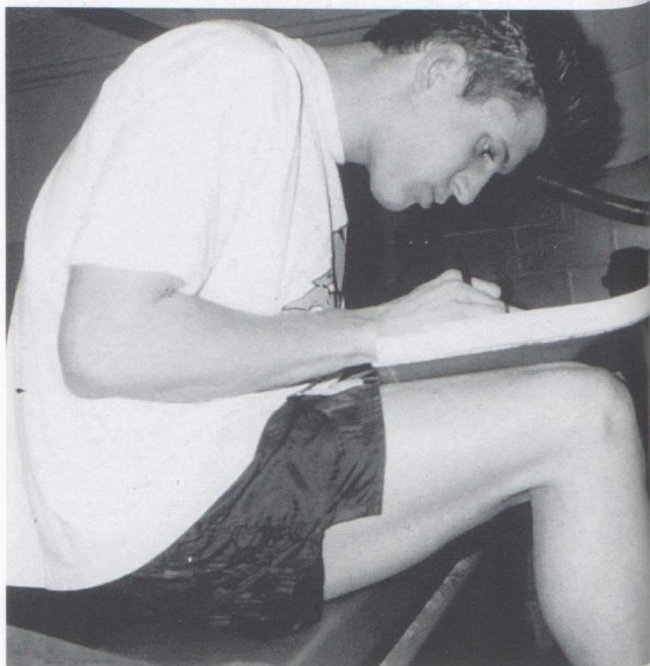

The Boys' Swim Team had an excellent season. The team consisted of three freshmen, three sophomores, three juniors, and one senior. Coach Frank Barthlow, in this thirty-eighth year, coached his team to a second place finish in the Ohio Heartland Conference and in the Sectional Meet. Mike Sigg led the team in the most points which earned him the title of MVP. He stated, “Just like everything else, it takes hard work and dedication.” By being captain and leading his team to victory, Shaun Jordan was an important asset to the team. Tom Van Harlingen was the only diver bringing home points for his team.

When the team was first rated this year it was said that they would be average; however, when the time came, the boys showed the critics that they were much better than average. Among the previous achievements on the swim team there were a large number of swimmers who made it to the districts. Mike Sigg swam under one minute in the 100m fly.

Also, Holger Kudela (German foreign exchange student) was ranked fifth, earning one of the fastest times in our school's history in the 100m breaststroke. “This experience on the swim team allowed me to gain new friends and get much faster. When I return to Germany I will miss swimming for a school because we don't have high school sports.”

With experience gained and personal records reached, the boys' swim team had a productive season.

Youthful Team Achieves Great Success

Above: 1995-96 J.V. and Varsity Wrestling Team.

The 1995-96 Tygers Wrestling Team was very youthful this year. Despite having only one senior wrestler on the team, they still finished in the top half of all but one Tournament. Coach Doug Moser claimed, "I always have high expectations of my teams, and this year I was very pleased with what I got out of my young wrestlers." Another goal of Coach Moser was not to lose anybody to ineligibility. He was very grateful because he did not lose any of his young men.

The captains of this year's team, which was highly more successful, were Sophomore Roger Merrell, Junior Ben Amadio, and Senior Nukuma Williams. With 12 lettermen returning next year, the Tygers have a good chance to continue with the success that they have had this year. There were 4 wrestlers who contributed the most to the success of this year's season. Achievements were: Ben Amadio (20+ wins), Roger Merrell (30 or more wins and third in state), and Nukuma Williams and Leroy Williams (27 wins each).

The various awards that were given were received by Roger Merrell, Most Valuable; Leroy Williams, Most Improved; Nukuma Williams, Leroy Williams, and Roger Merrell, Captains' Awards; Jeremy Wertz, Coach's Award; and Luke Tackett, Outstanding Freshman. The outlook for next year's team is very promising with the return of three out of four wrestlers who won the most matches.

Snow Does Not Delay J. C. Gorman

On January seventh the thirty-sixth annual J. C. Gorman wrestling tournament was held at the Malabar Middle School gymnasium. On the previous Friday an assembly was held to announce the queen and her court.

Jena Prats, former 1995 J. C. Gorman Queen, returned to crown Charlotte Evans the new queen who was escorted by Mark Hutchinson. The court included Titanya Watkins, escorted by Ed Thompson; Jodi Dawson, escorted by Matt McPeck; Stefany Walter, escorted by Joe Perry; and Anna Sminchak, escorted by Josh Snively.

Master and Mistress of Ceremonies for the assembly were Heidi Layfield and Jason Briggs. The special speaker was coach Doug Mosier. The music was provided by the Jazz Band directed by Jay Welenc. In addition, three songs were performed by the choir.

At the finals on Saturday evening, the queen and her court handed out trophies to the top wrestlers in each weight class.

When asked about the experience, Jodi Dawson said she was happy to be on the court to show her school spirit. Anna Sminchak stated that she enjoyed being on the court even though it was scary to have everyone looking at her. "Student Council did a great job organizing the assembly. They pulled everything together at the last minute because of the winter weather," replied Charlotte Evans.

The J. C. Gorman Assembly turned out to be an enjoyable event despite the mishaps that Student Council endured while planning for the festivities.

Drama Experiences Many Changes

There were many changes that brought the drama department into a new beginning. The retirement of Bill Asher delivered a new director, Mrs. Tharen Linne. The two new productions directed by Mrs. Linne were That's the Spirit and The Hobbit.

That's the Spirit was a murder mystery spoof which consisted of a group of psychics, a hermit, police, a wolf catcher, a maid, a niece, a dummy, a conceited actor, and a girl in a coffin. The cast thoroughly enjoyed playing these wacky roles.

The Hobbit, a musical, entailed a hobbit trying to reach home. The casting involved a new approach with the enlistment of sixth through twelfth graders. Musical director Sheila Reiselt, dance choreographer Amy Snider, martial arts choreographer Larry Frisby, and lighting and setting director Bill Asher all helped create a successful production.

When asked about the experience with The Hobbit, Gwen Crossno responded, "It was one of the best shows in years. The cast was bigger and full of energy." Tim Debo stated that the cast was great to work with. Anissa Corn acknowledged, "The cast pulled together and created an excellent show."

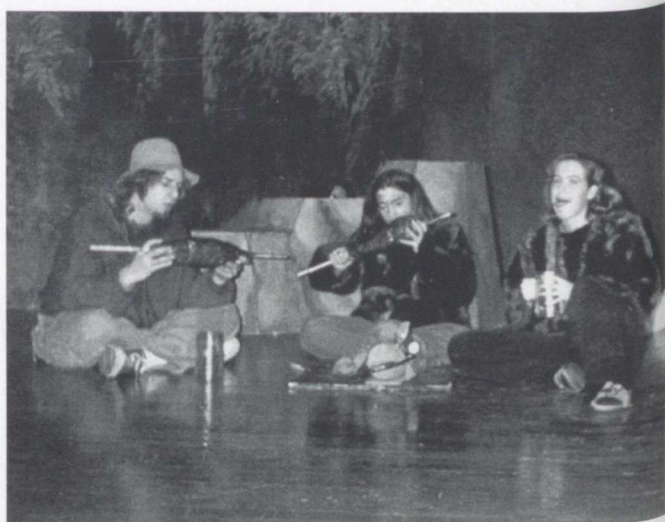

The combination of fresh direction and two new productions allowed the drama department to experience a time of change.

Boys Encounter Personal Accomplishments and Injuries

The Boys' Track team had an impressive season. They took third place at Versailles, second in the Ohio Heartland Conference, and qualified several for the Regional meet. Among those who qualified were Marshall Levins in the shot, Brody Stowers in the 1600m run, Ricky Upchurch and Clarence Jacocks in the 100m high hurdles, and Ed Thompson in the 400m dash. In addition, the boys' 4 × 100 and 4 × 800 qualified for the Regional meet.

Many Tygers were honored for their hard efforts throughout the season. The Most Valuable Person Award went to Brody Stowers. Most Improved was received by Ricky Upchurch. The Captain's Awards went to Clarence Jacocks and Lindy Hoagland. Edward Thompson received the Coach's Award.

Ed Thompson reported his high point of the season was that he ran 49.74 seconds for the 400m which was the best time in the state. His low point was that he had to drop out of the District meet because of an injury. Junior J. J. Dulin replied, "My high point of the season was improving at every meet." His best meet was the Districts because he enjoyed participating in the 100, 200, and 4 × 100. J. J. was another runner who experienced injury when he pulled a muscle at the District meet.

The boys' impressive season provided many opportunities for personal achievements. Next year's season looks to be just as promising with ten returning lettermen.

Lady Tygers Are Unstoppable

Many individual and team goals were set by the girls' track team. From their obvious success, it seemed as if they accomplished most of their goals. These girls received first place at every meet but two!

Along with these first place victories, many records were broken. The distance relay team of Jenny Link, Latayia Bronson, Monique Brent, and Sara Jones broke a record during an OHC meet in Lexington. Daneika Howard broke the record for both the school and the city in the one hundred meter dash with a time of 11.7 seconds. Da'Ren Brooks ran very well; she took first place in the 300 meter and 100 meter dashes every time she ran. Due to their hard work and dedication, these two young ladies were awarded the Most Valuable Players Awards.

The 4 x 100 relay team consisted of Shawntoya Jones, Dekila Taylor, Teaka Davis and Daneika Howard. They placed first in all of their meets. Along with Da'Ren Brooks, this relay team qualified for the state meet.

Shala Crawford tied first place in the high jump in Districts and Nicole Pigott won discus in the Conference meet. When asked how Nicole managed to do so well, she replied, "I stayed focused and dedicated. I worked hard and never gave up or settled for anything but the best."

At the spring sports awards many of the young athletes were recognized for their outstanding performances. Teaka Davis and Jerilyn Clay received the Captain's Awards.

Nicole Pigott and Dekila Taylor won the Coach's Awards and the Biggest Accomplishment Award was given to Jenny Link who also earned the fourth year Varsity Award.

Whether the girls' track team was jumping hurdles, landing on mats, throwing discuses, or sprinting towards the finish line, one thing was for sure: the girls' track team was unstoppable.

Tygers Face Another Challenging Season

With a record of 1-8, the season was a rough one for the boys' tennis team. The season was challenging; unsatisfactory weather cancelled most of the matches. A 3-2 victory over the Ontario Warriors was the only win of the season.

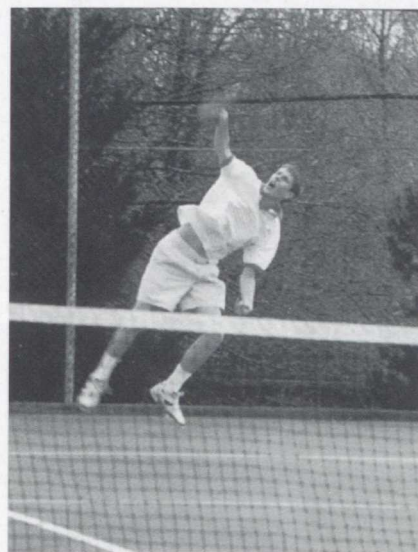

Playing first singles for the Tygers was Bryan Preston. Jeff Bell played second singles, and Kevin Uhde played third singles. First doubles were played by Eric Calhoun and the team captain, Jason Gates. The second doubles team was composed of Chris Stull and Matt Carbetta.

Spring awards were presented to: Jeff Bell, Most Valuable Player; Jason Gates, Most Improved and Captain's Award; and Bryan Preston, Coach's Award.

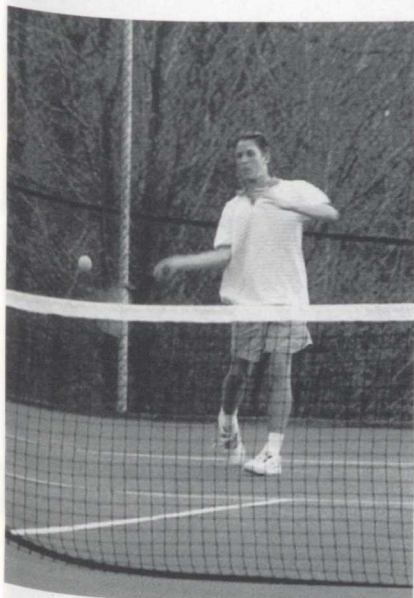

When asked what was the highlight of the season, Jason Gates replied, "I enjoyed being awarded the team captain position." Bryan Preston and Chris Stull responded, "The victory over Ontario was impressive and ended our season on a positive note." "The season was fun, but next year we really have to crack down," exclaimed Eric Calhoun.

Despite the disappointing season and bad weather, the young Tyger Tennis team felt they made improvements and look forward to a more successful season.

Zac Helbert Earns Mizino All-Ohio

"We didn't live up to our expectations" admitted Jake Soliday. The season began in February with winter conditioning and the team opened the season in early April with a loss to Shelby. The Tygers started their Ohio Heartland Conference season with a stunning victory over OHC champion Ashland, but they struggled the remainder of the season with a 10-14 record.

The Varsity baseball team had only three seniors on the roster led by fourth year letterman Zac Helbert, third year letterman Matt Demyan, and first year letterman Mike Welty. The team will return nine juniors for next year's team including third year letter winners Tim Clark, John Beasley, Jake Soliday, and Jeff Soliday. Also returning will be leading hitter Zach Bletz (.371) and leading pitcher Brennan Gibson (2.04). This should serve for a strong nucleus for next year's team.

The award winners included First Team All OHC Zac Helbert and Zach Bletz. Named to Second Team All OHC were Jeff Soliday and Matt Demyan. Tim Clark and Brennan Gibson received Honorable Mention All OHC. All District awards went to Zac Helbert (First Team) and Jeff Soliday (Honorable Mention). Zac Helbert was named to the Mizino All-Ohio Team representing the top 80 baseball players in Ohio. He was the first Tyger named to the All-Ohio team since 1979.

Young Lady Tygers Prove to be Strong

The onset of warm weather signified a start to the softball season. Although many games were rained out, the Lady Tygers ended with the most successful season in years, with a record of 5-11. They also had a conference victory against Lexington and a tournament win.

The Varsity team suffered a few hardships due to lack of experience. In response to team weaknesses, Kimberly Ferrell replied, "We needed to play as a team and not as individuals." She also stated, "We all have our own qualities, but together we just didn't handle situations well."

The team as a whole was comprised of valuable players; at the spring awards banquet, several individuals were recognized. Latacia Boswell earned Most Valuable Player, Most Improved, and tied with Kimberly Ferrell for the highest batting average. Jodi Dawson was voted the team captain. Finally, Rachel Maxfield received the Coach's Award.

When asked about her best moment, Nikki Shaffer stated that she will remember the tournament game. That's where she scored the tying run and ripped her knee open in the process. She also replied she would do it all over again if given the chance.

Next year's season does look promising for the team lost only three seniors. Senior Jodi Dawson's advice to the returning players is "keep a positive attitude because winning isn't everything."

Seniors Present "Wonderful Tonight"

"Wonderful Tonight" was the theme chosen for the senior prom. Under the leadership of President Jason Briggs, the Class of 1996 held its prom at the Mansfield Commerce Center on May 25. The prom goers enjoyed the variety of music that was offered throughout the night. Contemporary songs as well as the legendary "YMCA" and the "Electric Slide" provided the opportunity for the students to hit the dance floor.

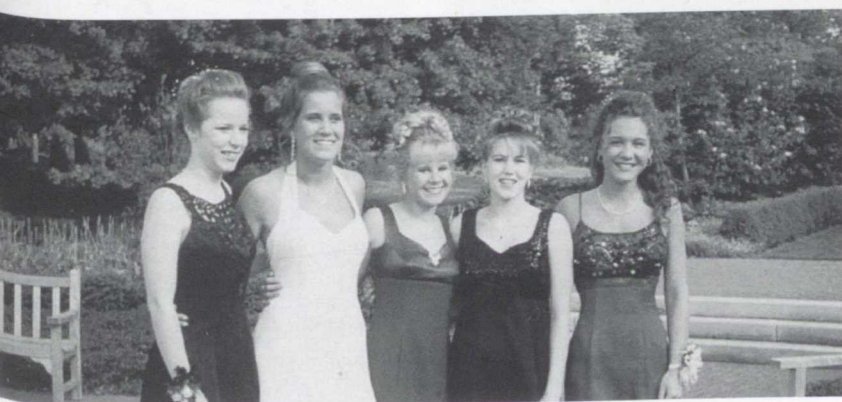

The tradition of crowning a prom king and queen was reinstated by the senior class. Upon arrival at the prom, students were given the opportunity to vote for their favorite choices for king and queen. Mike Jackson and Talaina Elder were chosen to represent the senior class. The couple danced to the theme song sung by Eric Clapton.

After prom events commenced at Park Lanes where the senior class advisors Mrs. Betty Dunn and Mrs. Debra Jacocks provided refreshments and many raffle prizes. The students amused themselves with bowling, pool, and video games. The night ended at Pickles Along the Tracks. After partaking in karaoke and sand volleyball, the students headed home for a few hours of sleep before their voyage to Cedar Point.

Seniors Earn Academic Recognition

As the seniors entered the auditorium for the traditional Class Day program, the Orchestra played "Pomp and Circumstance" which marked the beginning of the graduation ceremonies. Senior class president Jason Briggs addressed his fellow 1996 graduates with the salutation. He proudly reminisced upon the fond memories they had built throughout their years at Mansfield Senior High.

School board members Mrs. Debra Exten and Mr. Al Sigg had the honor of announcing the class Valedictorian and Salutatorian. Doug McKean earned the opportunity to represent his class as Valedictorian and Kendra Westfield received the Salutorian Award.

Numerous awards and scholarships were presented to the seniors by school staff and community members. The seniors who earned the distinctive Awards of Merit and Honors Diplomas were recognized by Mr. Smith. In addition, Joe Fairchild and Stephanie Walter were honored with the Pete Henry Award which is the highest recognition for scholar athletes.

The ceremony closed with the traditional passing of the gavel to the upcoming senior class president Aaron Wiegand. The seniors and their families then enjoyed the cake and punch provided by the sophomore class.

Mansfield Senior Sends 226 Forward

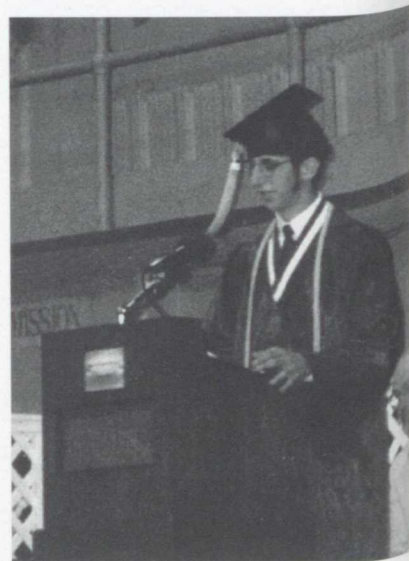

Not aiming to improve the world, but striving to improve oneself was the message Valedictorian Doug McKean tried to pass on to his fellow graduating classmates. He stressed that individual growth is what is needed to ensure a better future for those who would soon be facing the "real" world.

Class Salutatorian Kendra Westfield referred to the memories of her school years as building blocks. She carefully pointed out that the years the seniors had spent together merely constituted the first step of the building process; more importantly, she stressed that each individual would be responsible for carrying on the learning and building needed for future success.

The Tyger Cultural Choir presented their special tribute to the class of 1996 with their song "Be Encouraged." They sang of the trials and joys that all the students had encountered so far. The seniors were reminded to stay encouraged when future obstacles and adversities came along their paths.

Mr. Smith and the school board members presented the diplomas to the graduates and the seniors marched in recess to greet friends and family members.

In Loving Memory

Brittany Ling

Death is just a gateway that all people must pass through,
And on the other side of death,
in a world that's bright and new,
Our loved ones wait to welcome us to that land free from all tears
Where joy becomes eternal and time is not counted by years.

— Helen Steiner Rice

Brittany's friendship brought us joy and happiness. We are thankful to have had her in our lives and may we forever cherish our moments with her.
